Big art. Small panels. Huge community impact.

We're excited to introduce the Mini Murals Project at Bluffton Recreation Center — a creative, hands-on art experience bringing families, neighbors, and local artists together to transform our park into an outdoor gallery. Participants will paint a 2' x 4' double-sided mural panel that will be displayed on the Bluffton Rec Center Fencing for three years — brightening the space and celebrating community pride. After the display period, your mural goes home with you as a keepsake.

This is more than art — it's a shared story painted together. Spots are limited!
