A Lost Art Worth Remembering (Like cursive... but with thread.)

Once upon a time, knowing how to sew on a button or mend a hem was just... normal. Now? It's practically a forgotten language — and we're bringing it back. In this sweet, hands-on 2-class sewing series, youth ages 10-19 will learn the beautiful basics of hand sewing — practical stitches they can actually use in real life. Because being able to fix your own clothes isn't old-fashioned... it's empowering.

Burton Wells Rec Center | Tuesday, April 7 and Thursday, April 9 | 6:00-7:30 PM

What Students Will Do:

- Learn foundational hand-sewing stitches
- Practice patience and creativity
- Build confidence through a timeless life skill
- Transform unwanted fabric into something new and meaningful

Students are encouraged to bring unwanted fabric (shirts, blankets, or anything with a story). By the end of the sessions, they'll have created a charming, upcycled project to take home.
