Spring is calling, and it's bringing baskets full of joy with it. Join us for an afternoon designed especially for your littles, ages 18 months thru age 12.

This isn't just another seasonal event—it's a memory in the making. From cheerful music to colorful crafts created by tiny hands, every detail has been thoughtfully planned to spark smiles and laughter.

Children will move from game to game, delighting in playful challenges that keep them engaged, active, and grinning from ear to ear. Our hands-on craft stations will give them the chance to create something sweet to take home—a little reminder of a very happy day.

Parents can relax knowing this event is perfectly paced and thoughtfully designed with young children in mind. It's a safe, welcoming space where families can connect, neighbors can gather, and springtime magic feels very real.

Expect the same joyful atmosphere and festive fun. So grab your baskets, invite a friend, and make plans now—because the sweetest spring memories start right here.

Admission: $5, but parents are free!
Bonus: Small concessions available
