Great books. Great conversations. Great company.

There's something special about finishing a great book... until you realize you have no one to talk about it with.

That's where we come in. Join us on first Wednesdays of September through December for engaging conversations centered around a carefully selected book. Together, we'll explore memorable characters, unexpected plot twists, thought-provoking themes, and the ideas that stay with us long after we've turned the final page.

Our discussions are guided by both the instructor and club members, creating a welcoming space where every perspective is valued. Along the way, you'll discover new authors, make meaningful connections, and enjoy conversations that are every bit as rewarding as the books themselves.

Bluffton Rec Center, 6:00 - 7:30 PM | 9/2, 10/7, 11/4, & 12/2/2026

Please note: Participants are responsible for obtaining their own copies of each book.
Featured Book: "Dang: A Humorous Mystery"
